On the same date, WILLIAM A. SCOTT, Sheriff, and [redacted] both advised that [redacted] is well known to them as a chronic drunk and frequent complainant. Both advised that [redacted] has called them on many occasions with nonspecific complaints, and that on many occasions he is very rambling in his conversation. Sheriff SCOTT stated that he considers [redacted] to be a complete prevaricator who would say anything to gain attention, and that he, Sheriff SCOTT, would put little, if any, credence in anything he says.

Both advised that [redacted] is presently living with [redacted] who is also an alcoholic.

[redacted] stated that [redacted] last called him on 9/14/65, complaining that he needed help about an organization in the Auburn area, but that [redacted] could not name or identify the organization or define its purpose or objectives. [redacted]

[redacted] stated that from his speech it was obvious that [redacted] was drunk at the time of the call.

Sheriff SCOTT [redacted] stated that they know of Klan activity in the Auburn area and that they certainly possess no information that [redacted] is in any way affiliated with that group.

In view of the above, it is not believed that any additional investigation of [redacted] is warranted, and no such investigation is contemplated.

On October 31, 1965, "The Indianapolis Star," a daily newspaper published in Indianapolis, Indiana, carries story to effect that PARKIE SCOTT of Lebanon, Ohio, stated Klan would hold its first rally in Indiana about 50 miles south of Indianapolis.

He stated there would be activities from 10:00 AM until 10:00 PM Saturday and from 10:00 AM to 2:00 PM Sunday, November 6 and 7, 1965. SCOTT stated grand wizard JAMES VENABLE of Atlanta would be the speaker.

Cincinnati contact informants, so Indianapolis can be advised of location of rally.

Atlanta ascertain through informants if VENABLE planning to come to Indiana. If so, advise Indianapolis of mode of travel.

For information of the Bureau, Birmingham, and Atlanta, on 10/19/65, a tape recording was received in the Columbus FBI RA mailbox with no indication of the individual who might have mailed this tape to the Columbus RA.

This tape recording was listened to at the Cincinnati FBI Office and it appeared to be an interview by an unknown individual with [redacted] [redacted] United Klans of America.

On 10/21/65 it was learned that an individual by the name of [redacted] deposited the tape recording at the Columbus FBI RA Office. It would also appear that [redacted] was the individual who interviewed [redacted] on instant tape recording.

A copy of the tape recording was made at the Cincinnati FBI Office and is being retained in appropriate file (157-618). The original tape recording was returned to the Columbus Resident Agency so that it may be returned to Mr. [redacted] per his previous request.

The tape recording is summarized as follows:

"The Indianapolis Star," a daily newspaper published in Indianapolis, Indiana, edition of October 31, 1965, contained a news story that Parkie Scott of Lebanon, Ohio, stated that the Ku Klux Klan would hold its first rally in Indiana about fifty miles south of Indianapolis. Scott stated there would be activities from 10:00 A. M. until 10:00 P. M., Saturday, November 6, 1965, and from 10:00 A. M. to 2:00 P. M., Sunday, November 7, 1965. Scott further stated that the Ku Klux Klan Grand Wizard James Venable of Atlanta, Georgia, would be the main speaker.

"The Indianapolis News," a daily newspaper published in Indianapolis, Indiana, edition of November 3, 1965, contained a United Press International news story, date line Oregonia, Ohio, in which Parkie Scott of Oregonia, who described himself as an organizer for the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, said the Klan would hold its first Indiana rally in years this weekend near Dillsboro. Scott stated that the rally would be held Saturday and Sunday in a field south of Dillsboro on Indiana 262. Scott said a cross burning will follow the speaking Saturday night and his announcement appealed for a "group of men to help build the cross Saturday afternoon."

The announcement further said the rally was for "every white, Christian American" and added that "no alcoholic beverages, Communists, niggers and beatniks will be allowed on the rally grounds." Scott added that souvenirs, food, coffee and soft drinks would be for sale on the grounds.

"The Indianapolis Star," edition of November 4, 1965, contained another story concerning the rally and stated that John J. Dillon, Indiana Attorney General, had stated he had ordered the Indiana State Police to put the rally "under surveillance and report back to my office."

On November 4, 1965, [redacted] Lawrenceburg, Indiana, Dearborn County [redacted] in which county Dillsboro is located, advised that he had heard the Klan planned a rally this next weekend on a farm [redacted] of Dillsboro. [redacted] stated he would ask the Dearborn Circuit Court to issue a restraining order to prevent the holding of the rally. [redacted] stated he would seek the order under the provisions of the 1947 Indiana Anti-Hate Law which he said was aimed at such groups as the Klan.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that [redacted] has set up a Klan rally sanctioned by the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan in Georgia to be held in Dillsboro, Indiana, November 6 and 7, 1965. Source advised that a large turnout for this rally is not expected, and although [redacted] has invited James Venable to speak at the rally, Venable may not make an appearance.

A characterization of the above organization is attached to the appendix of this memorandum.

The Indianapolis Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation submitted a memorandum dated November 5, 1965, on above matter.

On November 6, 1965, [redacted] Indiana State Police, in charge of the Special Detail at Dillsboro, Indiana, advised that approximately 40 people showed up for the rally. He estimated that 160 sightseers also showed up for the rally.

b6
b7C

He advised that as each individual attempted to go into the field where the rally was to be held that the Sheriff read to each one the restraining order which had been obtained by [redacted] Dearborn County [redacted] from the Dearborn Circuit Court. The restraining order forbade the meeting under the provisions of the 1947 Indiana Anti-Hate Law.

He advised that only two arrests were made by the Sheriff. One was [redacted] Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, for playing drums which he had brought along and another individual who was identified as [redacted] Pittsburgh, but later gave the name [redacted] was arrested for putting on Klan robes. B. APPROX. 17 YRS

On November 6, 1965, [redacted] Dearborn County, Indiana, advised that both individuals were not "arrested" but "attached" because the action is not one of a criminal nature. He advised they were being held in Dearborn County jail with bail set at $5,000 each. He was of the opinion both would be afforded a hearing in Dearborn Circuit Court on November 10, 1965.

[redacted] advised the rally broke up about 3:45 PM on Saturday, November 6, 1965, and there was no indication that any activity was planned for Sunday, November 7, 1965.

Confidential Informant [redacted] with whom contact has been insufficient to determine his reliability, advised that he attended the rally of the Klan on Saturday, November 6, 1965. He stated that as he entered the field for the activities, a sheriff stopped him and read a court restraining order, which in his opinion, had stopped the Klan rally.

[redacted] advised that [redacted] James Venable [redacted] arrived about 3:30 PM, and that Venable informed those present there would be no rally, and he, Venable, did not wish to go against the court order forbidding the rally.

The above information was furnished to [redacted]

Enclosed for Atlanta and Louisville is one copy of each referenced airtel, and for Cincinnati, three copies of each referenced airtel.

Contact with SPATE has been insufficient to judge his reliability. It will be noted in Paragraphs 4 and 5 on Page 5 of informant memo, that [redacted] Mason, Ohio, claimed to know on sight three FBI Agents in their area, one of whom was initiated into the Ku Klux Klan at the farm of [redacted] Oregonia, Ohio. [redacted] claimed to have proved this to [redacted] by going up to the Agent and calling him by name. [redacted] also claims that one of the Agents told [redacted] not to be seen any more than necessary on [redacted] farm. [redacted]

The information contained in referenced airtels appears to have a possible bearing on and connection with the information furnished by [redacted]

Cincinnati is requested, through sources and appropriate investigation, to determine the significance of the information furnished by [redacted] and if, in fact, it could relate to the information set forth in referenced airtels.

By airtel dated 11/9/65 the Cleveland Office furnished information indicating that Probationary Racial Informant [redacted] had advised on 10/26/65 that he had been present at Klan activities at the farm of [redacted] Oregonia, Ohio, on 10/19 and 20/65. [redacted] of Mason, Ohio, claimed to know on sight [redacted] in their area and alleged one was initiated into the Ku Klux Klan at [redacted] farm.

b7D

Cleveland airtel refers to correspondence from the Bureau 11/5/65 regarding United Klans of America. That communication was in reference to [redacted]. There are allegations that [redacted] has been introduced at rallies [redacted]. He is presently [redacted] for the United Klans of America. He was never connected with the FBI although [redacted] for approximately [redacted] years until retirement in about 1955. [redacted] has been contacted by Bureau Agents and [redacted]. There appears to be no likelihood of a connection between [redacted] and the current allegation since [redacted] is not from the Ohio area and these two Klan organizations are bitterly opposed to each other.

OBSERVATION:

The probationary informant who is the source of this information is relatively new and his reliability has not been established. The Cincinnati Office, which covers activities of [redacted], has an informant who has regularly provided the names of all members initiated into this organization and there has been no indication from the Cincinnati Office that any Bureau personnel are involved. It appears that the informant may have received false information or that the source of the information was erroneous in [redacted]. Nevertheless, this must be thoroughly checked. 25-107-100-479

RE: NATIONAL KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN

OBSERVATION:

As pointed out in my earlier memorandum this allegation appears unlikely since the Cincinnati Office has obtained through their informant a list of members initiated in Ohio into this organization. However, these allegations must be completely resolved, and this matter is being closely followed. At the present time it appears the Cleveland informant may be able to obtain the names of the persons involved, and since he would be exposed if [redacted] were interviewed, the Cincinnati Office is withholding any such interviews.

Transmitted under separate cover by Registered Mail ~~are four~~ rolls of film concerning captioned matter.

On 11/9/65, ~~ROBERT HOYT~~, News Director, ~~WISH-TV, Indianapolis, Indiana~~, voluntarily made available to this office four rolls of 16 mm film which a camera crew of the Station had taken at ~~NKKK~~ rally held outside of Dillsboro, Indiana, on 11/6/65.

The sound track on the film is magnetic tape. Three of the reels are the raw film and the fourth is an edited copy which was used on the Station.

The FBI Laboratory is requested to review the raw reels and make two copies for Indianapolis.

It is to be noted that IP does not have a magnetic tape adapter for its 16 mm projector and, therefore, the Laboratory will have to in its reproduction of the film make it usable for the regular projector.

The IP Office would like two prints of the individuals interviewed and those who are nearby. IP is interested in the individual in the plaid shirt and the woman with him in the black dress; also, the two individuals, male and female, who are playing the musical instruments.

EX 110 REG-76

My memoranda dated 11-10 and 11-12-65 set forth background regarding information received from the Cleveland Office indicating that a probationary racial informant had alleged that [redacted] had been initiated into the Klan at the farm of Klan [redacted], Oregonia, Ohio. This information was obtained by the source from [redacted] of Mason, Ohio. The Cleveland Office was immediately instructed to completely resolve this allegation and to submit explanations for the delay in advising the Bureau of the allegation. Administrative action relative to the delay is being handled separately.

Upon recontact the informant advised that he was certain [redacted] had indicated to him that [redacted] was allegedly initiated into the Klan although [redacted]. The informant could remember no names but advised that [redacted] would be uncooperative if interviewed and stated that he would be [redacted]

The source traveled to Mason, Ohio, over the weekend of [redacted] with the specific purpose of determining all possible information concerning this allegation. He traveled on to Kentucky and upon his return to the Cleveland territory was interviewed by the Cleveland Office on November 16, 1965. This source advised that in conversation with [redacted] he had determined that [redacted] is the name of [redacted] claimed was initiated into the Klan. Source immediately recalled that this was the same name [redacted] had mentioned during the earlier conversation, which he had been unable to remember. [redacted] was described as a white male, [redacted]

[redacted] allegedly drove a [redacted] [redacted] radio. [redacted] claimed that [redacted] knew on sight were [redacted] met during the Summer 1965 at the farm of [redacted] It is to be noted that although this source was unaware of this information, [redacted] did appear at the farm of [redacted] while [redacted] were being interviewed by [redacted] of the Cincinnati Office, who were handling an official investigation regarding threatening letters received by [redacted] In view of the similarity of names, it appears that these are [redacted] known on sight. There has been no allegation [redacted] are in any way sympathetic with the Klan.

Synopsis:

Attempted rally on 11/6/65 at Dillsboro, Indiana, stopped by Dearborn County Circuit Court restraining order. Two people arrested at Dillsboro, Indiana.

- P -

IP 157-175

Confidential informant [redacted] on November 7, 1965, advised that he attended the rally at Dillsboro, Indiana, on November 6, 1965. [redacted] advised that, as he entered the field for the activities, a Sheriff stopped him and read a court order which restrained the Klan from having a rally.

[redacted] advised that [redacted] and JAMES VENABLE arrived about 3:30 PM and that VENABLE informed those present there would be no rally and he, VENABLE, did not wish to go against the court order forbidding the rally.

b6
b7C
b7D

[redacted] advised that, after VENABLE had completed his press conference, they went to the home of [redacted] in Ohio where there were about a dozen people. [redacted]

[redacted] advised that it was ascertained that two people had been arrested at Dillsboro, Indiana, and a collection was taken up for the wife of one of these individuals.

stated he would ask the Dearborn Circuit Court to issue a restraining order to prevent the holding of the rally. [redacted] stated he would seek the order under the provisions of the 1947 Indiana Anti-Hate Law which, he said, was aimed at such groups as the Klan.

The records of the Clerk of the Circuit Court, Dearborn County, Indiana, reveals that [redacted], Dearborn County, filed a petition for a restraining order. On November 5, 1965, Judge BAKER, Dearborn Circuit Court, issued a restraining order forbidding the KKK from conducting a rally in Dearborn County until further order of the court.

On November 6, 1965, [redacted] Indiana State Police, in charge of [redacted] at Dillsboro, Indiana, advised that approximately 40 people showed up for the rally. He estimated the sightseers at about 160 people.

He advised that, as each individual attempted to go into the field where the rally was to be held, the Sheriff read to each one the restraining order which had been obtained [redacted] Dearborn County Prosecutor, from the Dearborn Circuit Court. The restraining order forbade the meeting under the provisions of the 1947 Indiana Anti-Hate Law.

[redacted] advised two arrests were made by the [redacted] Sheriff. One was [redacted], Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, for playing the drums which he had brought along, and another individual by the name of [redacted] was arrested for putting on his Klan robes. [redacted] INDI.

On November 6, 1965, [redacted] advised these individuals were not arrested but attached because the action is not one of a criminal nature. He advised both were being held in Dearborn County Jail with bail set at $5,000 each.

On November 8, 1965, both were fined $50 each and court costs and given a 90-day suspended sentence.

Both of these individuals were not photographed or finger-printed because this was a civil violation, and [redacted] felt it would not be right to do so in view of this.

DETAILS:

NATIONAL KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN (NKKKK)

A characterization of the NKKKK is set forth in the Appendix of this report.

NKKKK Rally
November 6-7, 1965
Dillsboro, Indiana

The "Indianapolis Star," a daily newspaper published in Indianapolis, Indiana, in its October 31, 1965, issue carried a story that an organizer for the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan in Ohio said yesterday the Klan would hold its first Indiana rally in many years next week end about 50 miles south of Indianapolis.

The story revealed that PARKIE SCOTT, of Lebanon, Ohio, Kleagle of the Ohio KKK, said the exact site would be announced later in the week.

SCOTT, according to the story, stated there would be activities from 10:00 AM to 10:00 PM Saturday, and from 10:00 AM to 2:00 PM on next Sunday. The speaker was listed as the Grand Wizard JAMES VENABLE, of Atlanta, Georgia.

On November 4, 1965, confidential informant [redacted] advised that [redacted] had set up a Klan rally to be held in Dillsboro, Indiana, on November 6 and 7, 1965.

Activities of Indiana State Officials

The "Indianapolis Star," edition of November 4, 1965, revealed in a story that JOHN J. DILLON, Indiana Attorney General, stated that he had ordered the Indiana State Police to put the rally "under surveillance and report back to my office."

On November 4, 1965, [redacted] Lawrenceburg, Indiana, Dearborn County [redacted] in which county Dillsboro, Indiana, is located, advised he had heard the Klan planned a rally this next week end on a farm leased by [redacted] of Dillsboro. [redacted]

NATIONAL KU KLUX KLAN, also known as Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., National Grand Council of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Majority Citizens League

A source advised that on May 22, 1960, the National Grand Council of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan met at Atlanta, Georgia, to discuss consolidation of the klans unity of effort and activities, to establish a National Fund and a National Secretary and to design a new flag. The meeting was attended by representatives of the Federation of Ku Klux Klan, Alabama; Association of Arkansas Klans, Arkansas; Florida Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Florida; Southern Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Florida; Association of Georgia Klans, Georgia; Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, North Carolina; Association of South Carolina Klans, South Carolina; Dixie Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Tennessee; and Hyksos Klan, Texas.

This source advised that a consolidation meeting at Atlanta, Georgia, September 2 - 5, 1960, at which the North Carolina and Texas klans were not represented, it was resolved and passed that their name be changed to National Ku Klux Klan.

This source also advised that at a consolidation meeting at Savannah, Georgia, October 3, 1960, it was resolved and passed that in any future meetings of this group the name "Majority Citizens League" was to be used.

[redacted] source advised that at a National Klonklave meeting at Texarkana, Texas, on February 11 - 12, 1961, a motion was carried that there were to be at least six national meetings a year to be held any time from one week to twelve weeks after the last meeting. The time and meeting place were to be decided by the newly-elected chairman. [redacted] source also advised that at each meeting a new chairman and acting secretary were to be elected to serve at the next meeting. A national secretary had not been appointed.

NATIONAL KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN (NKKKK)

A characterization of captioned organization appears in the Appendix.

On November 30, 1965, a source who has furnished reliable information in the past advised a closed Klan meeting was held at David Hall in Cleveland, Ohio, November 28, 1965. This meeting was organized by [redacted], a Klan member who resides [redacted] Oregonia, Ohio. It was expected approximately 100 individuals would be present; however, only 53 persons were in attendance at the meeting. Twenty-five individuals were initiated into the Klan during the meeting.

The identities of the individuals initiated are not known at this time. The real purpose of the meeting was to establish a Klavern in the Cleveland, Ohio, area and even though it is believed the Klavern is now presently established, the headquarters location has not been set up.

b6
b7C
b7D

A President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer were elected to operate the Klavern at a future date during the meeting. The identities of these officers are not currently known. There were no national Klan figures present during the meeting.

[redacted] KU KLUX KLAN MEMBER
[redacted] a local Klansman from Cincinnati, Ohio, was present during the meeting. It is not believed that Mink acted in any official capacity.

[redacted] from Cleveland, Ohio, was also present during the meeting.

[redacted] source, with whom contact has not been sufficient to determine reliability, advised on November 30, 1965, that an individual named [redacted] was elected and an individual named [redacted] was elected [redacted] of the Cleveland Klavern #6, NKKKK, at a meeting held on Sunday, November 28, 1965, at David Hall, 4105 Clark Avenue, Cleveland, Ohio. 110

On November 29, 1965, [redacted] Cleveland, Ohio, Police Department, advised that he had received the following information from one of his sources on November 28, 1965.

This source informed [redacted] that the NKKKK held a meeting that same date at David Hall, 4105 Clark Avenue, Cleveland, Ohio. Approximately 50 people were at this meeting, and approximately 22 people took the Klan oath and were initiated into the Klan. The main speaker at the meeting was from the Cincinnati, Ohio, area and had a mustache.

[redacted] The source pointed out an individual to [redacted] and stated that he was [redacted] of the Klan Klavern that had just been established at the meeting. Sergeant Ungvary informed that this individual is known to him as Loyal Johns, who retired from a position as investigator with the City of Cleveland Board of Education.

would find the Klan attractive and that the public generally did not want the Klan in Austin.

On November 30, 1965, [redacted] Registrar's Office, The University of Texas, advised there was no record on [redacted] ever having attended the University of Texas and being classified as a student.

On November 30, 1965 [redacted] Registrar's Office, Division of Extension School Correspondence Section, The University of Texas, advised that [redacted], who gave his birth date as [redacted] Austin, Texas, and his address as [redacted] Austin, Texas, enrolled in a night school course, Economics 303, on September 15, 1965. She said grades for this course had not yet been reported and there was no indication that [redacted] had dropped this course.

[redacted] noted [redacted] enrollment fee was $37.50 which he had paid by presenting a check in the amount of $50.00, signed by [redacted]

b6
b7C

She advised that normally to enroll a person would need a high school diploma or an equivalency thereof, or pass a test, however, [redacted] instance this apparently was waived.

She said that the waiving of these requirements was not out of the ordinary.

In conclusion [redacted] was not considered a student at the University of Texas.

On December 1, 1965 [redacted] Registrar's Office, The University of Texas, Austin, Texas, advised that [redacted] who is classified as a junior at the University of Texas, records her date of birth as [redacted] in Chicago, Illinois, and her parent as [redacted] Illinois.

[redacted]

The official student directory of the University of Texas for 1965-66 lists [redacted] as a resident of [redacted] Austin, Texas, and her telephone number as Greenwood 8-3507. Her permanent residence address is shown as [redacted] Chicago, [redacted] Illinois, her classification as junior in the College of Business Administration, and her sorority affiliation as Sigma Delta Tau.

On December 6, 1965, [redacted] Intelligence Officer, Criminal Investigation Division, Austin, Texas Police Department, said a citizen who did not desire to reveal his identity, reported that on November 29, 1965, the citizen observed a 1949 Chevrolet, two door, bearing Louisiana license [redacted] and dark blue in color, stopped in Zilker Park in Austin. This citizen observed a man moving papers or pamphlets from the back seat of this car to the trunk of the car and these papers or pamphlets had Ku Klux Klan written on them.

Later on December 6, 1965 [redacted] advised that a confidential source of his had been contacted by [redacted] who, the source noted, was driving an old car with Louisiana license [redacted]

[redacted] told his source that there were 42 members of the United Klans of America, Inc., in Austin, and that this group consisted primarily of students of the University of Texas, however, three university professors and a U. S. Air Force Major stationed at Bergstrom Air Force Base, Texas, were also members.

[redacted] also told [redacted] source, according to [redacted] that this organization had a bank account and that the organization had been chartered. Further, that he, [redacted] was [redacted] of this newly chartered group. He said [redacted] told this source that [redacted]

[redacted]
[redacted] of the United Klans of America, Inc., planned a trip to Texas and probably would visit Austin, however, no date was mentioned for this proposed visit to Texas. [redacted] said [redacted] told his source that the Klan might have another march in Austin before Christmas and that this march would be concerned with integration rather than the Vietnam matter.

He said [redacted] also told this source that he, [redacted] was at that time looking for some private property to rent in order to hold a "mask on" type of rally.

In conclusion, [redacted] said this source described [redacted] as apparently "wacky enough to be telling the truth" and "indiscreet" to say the least.

On December 8, 1965, [redacted] advised [redacted] had again contacted this source and advised the source that he was going to Crockett, Texas, on [redacted], where there would be a meeting to elect a Grand Dragon of the United Klans of America, Inc., for the State of Texas.

b6

On December 7, 1965, [redacted] Charter Division, Secretary of State's Office, Capitol Building, Austin, Texas, advised she could not locate either a charter or application for a charter for the United Klans of America, Inc., or any other organization which she could determine to be affiliated with the Ku Klux Klan.

On December 7, 1965, [redacted], Statistician, Texas Highway Department, and a resident of [redacted] Austin, Texas, advised that he rented his beach house located at his home address to [redacted] H from about [redacted]. He said that [redacted] left owing him money.

[redacted] said he observed nothing out of the ordinary during this residence by [redacted]. He said that he has known [redacted] since 1957 when both were interested in scuba diving and were members of the Austin Underwater Society.

[redacted]
[redacted] said that [redacted] is given to great exaggeration in his conversations.

In conclusion, [redacted] said that he was curious as on this date he had returned a letter received at his home address from a pathologist located in Medical Arts Square, in Austin, and this letter was addressed to [redacted] and he was not aware of the fact that [redacted] was married.

b6
b7C

On December 8, 1965, [redacted] appeared at the Austin Resident Agency of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, and showed FBI Agents the following:

A pamphlet entitled "The Seven Symbols of the Klan", issued by the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Box 657, Tucker, Georgia.

A pamphlet entitled "The Light of Right", distributed by JAMES R. VENABLE, Imperial Wizard, N.K.K.K.K., Post Office Box 107, Tucker, Georgia.

A pamphlet entitled "National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan", a message from Honorable JAMES R. VENABLE, Tucker, Georgia.

An application for citizenship in the Invisible Empire, Knights of the Ku Klus Klan, Post Office Box 107, Tucker, Georgia.

A leaflet entitled "The Fiery Cross" issued by the United Klans of America, Suite 401, Tuscaloosa, Alabama.

A copy of a newspaper, The Fiery Cross, shown as an official publication, United Klans of America, 401 Alston Building, Tuscaloosa, Alabama, bearing no date, with the lead item reading "An introduction to the Ku Klux Klan".

A copy of The Fiery Cross with the lead item, "Sex and Civil Rights.

[Redacted]

A copy of a newspaper Highlander Folk School, bearing no date, with the notation reprinted by courtesy of United Klans of America, Suite 401, Augstton Building, Tuscaloosa, Alabama.

[Redacted] advised he is organizing a Klavern of the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan in Austin, Texas, and is having some success though he could not reveal the number or identity of the members accepted into the Klavern as this would be against the rules.

He said, more than likely, there will be a meeting in Texas in the near future of the heads of all organizations of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, and of all organizations of the United Klans of America, Inc., in Texas. He said there has been talk of uniting these two groups and of severing relations with the national organizations. He said that then in effect it would be a group composed only of Texas members [Redacted].

[Redacted] said that his hope is that this will be effected.

He said the Austin group contemplates no official acts in Austin such as rallies or marches until this unification matter has been settled.

[Redacted] advised that if the group of Texas members is formed, it would try to follow the original teachings, of the true teachings of the Klan, and would neither partake in nor permit the harrassment of any individual or group. That neither terror nor violence would be tolerated.

He said that as a matter of fact, under no circumstances, would the Austin group tolerate harrassment, violence or terror, and that should any member of the group perform any such act he personally would identify this individual to authorities.

b6

[redacted]
[redacted] said his reason for organizing in Austin is to try and let the public know what is really going on in the world.

He said that the group in Austin is making up Christmas packages to be distributed to the needy in Austin.

[redacted] said this group does not have office space.

He said he was of the opinion that should the group have either a march or a rally in the future, that probably only about 101 would show up as so many are desirous of protecting their identity due to their jobs or professions.

In conclusion, [redacted] said he is presently unemployed, though he expects obtaining employment delivering telephone books, and that he presently is residing in the residence of his parents at 610 Crestland, Austin, Texas.

The characterization of the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (United Klans), State of Texas organization, is contained in the Appendix hereto.

The characterization of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan is contained as an Appendix hereto.

On December 8, 1965, [redacted] advised that he had been contacted by [redacted] who said that a meeting of the United Klans of America, Inc., in Texas, would be held at Midway, Texas, the evening of December 10, 1965, for the purpose of electing a Grand Dragon of Texas. [redacted] that Midway was located near Crockett, Texas. Also that the movie "The Birth of a Nation" would be shown at this meeting.

[redacted]

[redacted] On December 10, 1965, [redacted] advised the previous evening [redacted] stated two men had been initiated into the United Klans of America, Inc., as honorary members.

[redacted] also advised that [redacted] [redacted] of Bergstrom Air Force Base Texas, and Monroe, Louisiana, was a Kleagle, which [redacted] described as an [redacted] of the United Klans [redacted] also made mention that two men at Bergstrom Air Force Base had recently been initiated into this organization.

[redacted] told him that [redacted] held a fourth degree brown belt in "karate" and was training two members of the Klan in "karate", purely for defensive purposes.

b6
b7C
b7D

[redacted] reiterated that he was opposed to purposely violating the law, but that the Klan now had the services of a Houston attorney should such services be needed.

[redacted] again mentioned the state meeting in Midway the evening of December 10, 1965, and said that the office of Grand Dragon of Texas probably would go to either [redacted] of Houston, Texas.

[redacted] told him that [redacted] was [redacted] in Austin, and said that no other officers had been elected in the Austin group.

UNITED KLANS OF AMERICA, INC.
KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN (UNITED KLANS)

Records of Superior Court of Fulton County, Georgia, show that this klan organization was granted a corporate charter on February 21, 1961, at Atlanta, Georgia, under the name United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc.

A source advised on February 27, 1961, that United Klans was formed as a result of a split in U. S. Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc. According to the source, the split resulted from a leadership dispute and United Klans has the same aims and objectives as the parent group. These are the promotion of Americanism, white supremacy, and segregation of the races.

[redacted] source [redacted] source advised in July, 1961, that United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., merged with Alabama Knights, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan. The merged organization established headquarters in Suite 401, The Alston Building, Tuscaloosa, Alabama. The organization is directed by [redacted] and is the dominant klan group in the South with units in several southern states.

On August 14, 1961, [redacted] source advised that the organization formerly known as United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., would be known in the future as United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan. The second source said the name was changed by a resolution adopted at the National Klonvokation held July 8, 1961, at Indian Springs, Georgia.

[redacted] advised that at a meeting at Prattville, Alabama, on October 22, 1961, a majority of the klaverns of the U. S. Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan merged with the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

UNITED KLANS OF AMERICA, INC.

STATE OF TEXAS ORGANIZATION

A source advised in January, 1965, that [redacted] of Temple, Texas, had, in November, 1964, discontinued his efforts to organize the State of Texas on behalf of the United Klans of America, Inc., and that such efforts had been assumed by [redacted] of Houston, Texas. This source indicated the majority of the Texas Klan members were located in the general area of Houston, Texas.

[redacted] source advised in September, 1965, that [redacted] Houston, Texas, had been considered for Texas until a visit to Houston [redacted] on September 18, 1965, by [redacted]. This source indicated [redacted] had come to Texas for the purpose of holding elections of a slate of state officers and had been disappointed that [redacted] did not have the necessary ten organized Klaverns of at least twenty-five members each. As a result, [redacted] indicated the State of Texas could not be organized at that time, but he would return to Texas in October, 1965, if the membership of the United Klans had been increased sufficiently by that time.

[redacted] source advised [redacted] of Houston had been designated by [redacted] for Texas. This source stated [redacted] had made conflicting claims regarding the number of Klaverns actually in existence. This source stated as of September, 1965, there were apparently four to six Klaverns holding meetings in the Houston Metropolitan area, and that Houston Klan members were known to have made trips to Lufkin, Crockett, Beaumont, and Galveston, Texas, to assist in organizing Klaverns in those towns.

Informant, advised on 12/13/65 that he had attended a meeting of the National KKK Klavern #6 at David Hall, 4105 Clark Ave., Cleveland, Ohio, on 12/11/65. He volunteered the following information concerning the meeting:

Approximately [] persons were in attendance at the meeting. [] NS was identified as [] of Klavern #6 at this meeting; [] of the Klavern; []

[] It was announced that [] opened a bank account for the Klavern at the Cleveland Trust Co. under the name "Educational Sportsman's Fund." Annual dues for Klansmen were announced to be $15 of which $6.50 is kept for the local Klavern and the balance sent to Ga.

[] stated that there is an active Klavern (#7) in Akron, Ohio, with 75 members, and that the Cleveland Klavern also has 75 members.

[] was pointed out to [] as an [] because FBI Agents were out to his house. This [] known to [] only as [] reportedly has firearms at his house and reportedly converted semi-automatic weapons into fully automatic weapons. He also supposedly has a couple of "Eagle" sub-machine guns.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

Relative to your November 15, 1965 report of investigation of [REDACTED] of West Alexandria, Ohio, we enclose for your information a copy of his affidavit furnished during his personal interview by [REDACTED] concerning [REDACTED] reported membership in the Knights of the Klu Klux Klan.

[redacted] in his affidavit admitted that at the instance of a friend whose identity he would not disclose, he paid $15 initiation fee and was initiated into the KKKK during about June or July 1965; that later upon thinking about it he decided not to keep up his membership; that although he received several letters concerning meetings, he never attended any meetings or received a membership card; denied ownership of any Klan robes, paraphernalia or firearms; and concluded that after having been talked into joining the Klan he realized his mistake and dropped out at once.

Sincerely yours,

ALL INFORMATION CONTAINED

On December 13, 1965, a source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised as follows:

After officials of the Eagles Lodge in Newport, Kentucky, refused to allow the scheduled Klan meeting to be held at the Eagles Lodge, it was decided to transfer the meeting site to [redacted] farm, Oregonia, Ohio. The meeting took place on [redacted] farm, however, neither James Venable, Imperial Wizard, nor [redacted] made an appearance. This caused extreme disappointment. Approximately 75 persons were present and the possibility exists that a very small number of those present were initiated into the Klan.

ohio

The purpose of the meeting was to explain that the United Klans of America (UKA) was attempting to "raid and steal" members from the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (NKKKK) for UKA. A Grand Dragon was supposed to be appointed for the State of Ohio, however, this appointment was not made.

On December 14, 1965, [redacted] source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished substantially the same information set out above. In addition, this source advised that [redacted] told everyone present that there were no additional plans for Klan meetings or rallies until after January 1, 1966, especially in view of the Klan hearings scheduled in Washington, D. C. during January, 1966. Also, James Venable and [redacted] never made an appearance at this meeting because they were in the Cleveland and Akron, Ohio, area on December 11 or 12, 1965, or both dates on some type of Klan business.

[redacted] Cincinnati Klansman, was in attendance at this meeting.

Synopsis:

Rally sponsored by Shreveport-Bossier City Units held 7/17/65 in Bossier Parish and attended by estimated 250-350 persons with JAMES VENABLE as main speaker. [redacted] Coushatta, La., is attempting to organize "elite" group of Klan leaders into organization to be known as Knights of the White Camelia. [redacted] attended a meeting of Imperial Board of Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Stone Mountain, Georgia, on 9/3/65 and National Klan Day Rally on 9/4/65. At Board Meeting [redacted] proposed uniting all Klan groups under one head and expressed his preference as [redacted] Shreveport Klavern continues to meet but with less regularity. [redacted] indicates desire to sever connections with [redacted] of Coushatta Unit, and unite with [redacted] UKA. [redacted] reportedly interested in gaining control of Shreveport Unit. Coushatta Unit reportedly split, and contacts between Coushatta and Shreveport Units infrequent.

DETAILS:

A characterization of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc. (NKKKK) and the United Klans of America, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., (UKA), are set forth in the appendix section of this report.

I. KLAVERN MEETINGS AND ACTIVITIES

NO 157-188

A. SHREVEPORT - BOSSIER CITY, LOUISIANA

A meeting was held from 8 to 9:15 PM on July 7, 1965, in the rear of the Pick-Nick Store on Southern Avenue, Shreveport, Louisiana. The purpose of the meeting was to discuss plans for a big Klan rally to be held on U.S. Highway 80, East of Bossier City, Louisiana ~~approximately 7 miles from Kelly's Truck Stop on July 17, 1965.~~ [redacted] of the Klavern, stated a big crowd is expected and Klansmen have been invited from East Texas, Arkansas, Mississippi, and Louisiana. Representatives of the three Shreveport television stations were invited to take pictures and the meeting is opened to the public. Klansmen are to wear robes and some will bring horses draped with sheets.

[redacted] will furnish material for the cross burning. [redacted] will furnish a flat-bottom truck to use as a speaker's platform. JAMES VENABLE, head of the NKKKK, is to be the main speaker and will stay with [redacted] of Coushatta, Louisiana. KKK signs are to be placed on the highway prior to the rally. The Klavern meeting was attended by eight men.

[redacted] July 7, 1965.)

[redacted] advised the Shreveport Klavern that $10 will be withdrawn from the treasury to be used to send flowers to the funeral of ADALI STEVENSON, Ambassador to the United Nations. A card with the notation, "One Less", is to accompany the flowers. On July 16, 1965, it was learned that [redacted] did not send the flowers as he did not know where to send them.

[redacted] July 15, 1965.)

MEMBER OF SUBJECT ORGANIZATION

A joint meeting of the Shreveport - Bossier City Klavern was held on July 15, 1965 at the Pick-Nick Store on Southern Avenue. The meeting began at 8 PM and lasted until about 10 PM. [redacted] men were present. [redacted] was taken into the organization at the meeting. Most of the meeting was spent in discussion of the Klan rally planned for July 17, 1965 in Bossier Parish on the property of [redacted] is not a Klan member. Arrangements to use his land were made by [redacted] of Bossier City who is acquainted with [redacted]. It is anticipated one thousand Klansmen from Louisiana and surrounding states will be present at the rally. Representatives of the Shreveport television stations were extended invitations to take pictures at the rally.

Shreveport, La.

[redacted] July 23, 1965.)

A joint meeting of the Shreveport - Bossier City Klaverns was held on July 28, 1965 from 9 to 10:30 PM in the upstairs of a vacant house at the corner of Flora and Jewella Streets. The house belongs to [redacted]. Thirteen men were present including two new members who were sworn into the Klan. They were identified as [redacted] Shreveport, La. and [redacted] [redacted] No one was in charge of the meeting and most of the time was spent in talking about the FBI being aware of their meeting place. It was decided the next meeting, on August 5, 1965, would be at Grand Cane, Louisiana, where [redacted] owns a place.

[redacted] September 10, 1965.)

Source advised he is not aware of any activity at the present time on the part of the NKKKK.

[redacted] September 14, 1965.)

A meeting was held at the Pick-Nick Store, 6904 Southern Avenue, from 8:15 to 9:15 PM, September 15, 1965. Ten men were present. [redacted] stated there was a need for a lot of crosses to be burned, but no specifics were discussed concerning this. [redacted] claims to have several names of persons who are interested in joining the Klan. There was also talk at the meeting of dividing the Klavern into five units with the new units to be headed by [redacted]

[redacted] September 16, 1965.)

[redacted] of the United Klans of America, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., (UKA), is reported to be interested in taking over the Shreveport Klan group.

[redacted] September 17, 1965.)

MEMBER OF SUBJECT ORGANIZATION

A Klavern meeting was held at the Pick-Nick Store on September 28, 1965 from 8 to 9:20 PM with eight men present. One member reportedly had the names of forty three persons interested in joining the Klan. These persons are to be interviewed concerning their interest. A suitcase filled with Klan robes made by [redacted]

It was reported at the meeting that the Unit has $187.00 in its treasury. The money is kept in a box in the office of the Pick Nick Store. Discussion was held concerning another rally to be held soon at the same location in ~~Rosine~~ ~~Danish~~ where a previous rally was held on July 17, 1965. [redacted] was selected as speaker if a date could be scheduled by him.

[redacted] September 29, 1965.)

Source advised there appears to be little Klan activity of any significance in the Shreveport area. The local Klavern is breaking with [redacted] of Coushatta, Louisiana. [redacted] appears to be interested in associating the group with [redacted]. He wants to get [redacted] as a speaker for a local rally if arrangements can be made.

[redacted], October 6, 1965.)

[redacted] of the UKA, wants to hold a big road-side rally for the Klan in the Shreveport area about November 8, 1965.

MEMBER OF SUBJECT ORGANIZATION

NO 157-188

A meeting was held the night of November 1, 1965, in a back room of the Pick Nick Store. Seventeen men were present. [redacted] stated because he was unable to locate a suitable place for a big meeting, [redacted] will not come to Shreveport for a rally. He also states he has reliable information indicating that no one from Shreveport or Bossier City would be called to appear before the House Un-American Activities Committee in Washington. Plans were discussed at the meeting to prepare stencils reading "Booker T. Annex" and spray pointing this on sidewalks and buildings at Byrd High School because one Negro student is now attending that school. The signs would be painted around Thanksgiving to coincide with the Byrd- Fair Park High School football game. It was felt that Fair Park students would be blamed for the painting.

[redacted], November 5, 1965.)

B. COUSHATTA, LOUISIANA

At a meeting of the Shreveport Klavern on September 15, 1965, [redacted] complained that quite a number of groups of the Klan over the country are breaking up. He stated as a result of a split up of a group at Coushatta, Louisiana, he had lost contact with the members there. One member noted this was a tactic of [redacted] to break up Klan groups and then gather up the remnants for a Klan organization.

[redacted] September 16, 1965.)

On the dates indicated, the following sources advised that they were unable to furnish any pertinent information with reference to the reported split in the NKKKK Unit at Coushatta, Louisiana:

[redacted] November 2, 1965;
[redacted] November 2, 1965;
[redacted] November 3, 1965;
[redacted] November 13, 1965.

At a meeting on November 4, 1965, [redacted] stated he had not heard from the group in Coushatta for several weeks.

NO 157-188

A rally was observed by Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation in an open pasture on the North side of US Highway 80 in Bossier Parish, Louisiana, approximately seven miles East of Bossier City, Louisiana. A speaker's stand was located about one hundred and fifty yards North of the Highway right-of-way in the open field. A small cloth sign was hanging over the entrance to the field containing the letters, "KKK" and a cross. Vehicles containing representatives of the three Shreveport, Louisiana television stations arrived between 7:15 and 7:30 PM. Approximately fifty robed Klansmen were present. Five Klansmen armed with shotguns stood guard at the entrance to the rally area.

A twelve-foot cross and two smaller crosses were burned, and a torch-lit parade of about thirty five robed men marched about the speaker's stand. JAMES VENABLE spoke for thirty three minutes reviewing the history and nature of the Klan. He discussed the present political situation in the United States and emphasized his dislike for the "free society." Following VENABLE's speech, an unidentified robed man spent fifteen minutes attempting to enlist new members and soliciting donations. The meeting lasted from 7:10 to 9:10 PM. Many persons in the crowd began to leave the area ten minutes before VENABLE's speech ended. The crowd was estimated between 250 to 350 individuals, not including the robed Klansmen.

III. PROPENSITY TO VIOLENCE

[redacted], a member of the Shreveport Klavern, brought a new member to a joint meeting of the Shreveport - Bossier City Units at the Pick Nick Store on Southern Avenue, Shreveport, Louisiana, on July 15, 1965. The new member was identified as [redacted] who is supposed to be an expert on the use of dynamite.

[redacted] July 16, 1965.)

At a Klan meeting in Shreveport on July 27, 1965, [redacted] brought a box of railroad flares and demonstrated how they could be used to start a fire. He also had about twenty sharp pointed instruments similar to a leather auger. Some of these instruments had longer blades or points than others, and could be used like brass knucks for fighting or for puncturing tires and radiators.

IV. MISCELLANEOUS

A. KNIGHTS OF THE WHITE CAMELLIA

[redacted] Coushatta, Louisiana, is attempting to organize an elite group of Klan leaders into an organization known as the Knights of the White Camellia. This organization is supposed to be comparable to thirty second degree masonry in that it would be composed of higher ranking Klan leaders.

[redacted], August 16, 1965.)

B. MEETING OF IMPERIAL BOARD OF KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN AND NATIONAL KLAN DAY RALLY

[redacted] Coushatta, Louisiana, attended a meeting of the Imperial Board of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan held in Room 23 of the Memorial Drive Motel, Stone Mountain, Georgia, on Friday night, September 3, 1965. At that meeting, [redacted] pointed out that Texas is ready to be organized by the Klan for several reasons. He cited one as the fact that Democratic Party is very unpopular in Texas due to its racial activities on behalf of Negroes. He stated President JOHNSON has allowed Negroes and integration leaders to do as they please in the United States, resulting in the loss of liberty to the white people. He accused the President of encouraging Negro demonstrations. He believes the State of Texas needs the Klan badly and states he needs high-type persons as organizers in Texas.

[redacted], September 6, 1965.)

[redacted] Coushatta, Louisiana, was in attendance at a National Klan Day Rally of the NKKKK on September 4, 1965, at Stone Mountain, Georgia. This rally was held to commemorate the one hundredth anniversary of the birth of the Klan. [redacted] was a delegate to the National Meeting which followed the rally on September 5, 1965. At the meeting, [redacted] started a discussion concerning the benefits of having one Klan organization under one head. He indicated he knew a man under whom he believed all Klan groups would be willing to unite. He later identified this man as [redacted] (retired). Aut.

[redacted] noted the State of Louisiana has as many as six Grand Dragons and stated efforts to unite them under one head were unsuccessful.

NO 157-188

[redacted] made a motion at the meeting that the question of uniting the Klan under one man be brought up by all delegates to their individual Klan organizations for discussion and agreement upon someone to serve as head of all Klans in the United States. The delegates would then return to Georgia in the future to vote on the individual that they would like to lead them.

[redacted] September 7, 1965.)

C. KLAN MEETING, BIVINS, TEXAS

A meeting of Klansmen was held near Bivins, Texas, on June 13, 1965 for the purpose of making plans for a Klan rally which was held at Pine Bluff, Arkansas on the night of June 19, 1965. [redacted] was not present, nor was he discussed during the course of the meeting.

MEETING OF NATIONAL KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN, INC., December 12, 1965
David Hall, 4105 Clark Avenue,
Cleveland, Ohio

On December 13, 1965, a source with whom contact has been insufficient to determine his reliability advised as follows:

Approximately 20 persons were in attendance at a meeting of Klavern #6, National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (NKKKK) held at David Hall, 4105 Clark Avenue, Cleveland, Ohio, on December 1, 1965. It was announced at the meeting that [redacted] is the [redacted] It was announced that [redacted] had opened a bank account for the Klavern at the Cleveland Trust Company under the name "Educational Sportsman Fund". This will be the name used on checks in handling Klan business. Annual dues for Klansmen were announced to be $15, of which $6.50 is kept for the local Klavern and the balance is sent to Georgia.

[redacted] stated that there is an active Klavern (#7) in Akron, with 75 members and the Cleveland Klavern also has 75 members.

[redacted] in attendance at the meeting, identified only [redacted] reportedly has firearms in his home and has converted semi-automatic weapons into fully automatic weapons. He also reportedly owns a couple of "Eagle" sub-machine guns.

The FBI reportedly came [redacted] house with a search warrant and confiscated plans for converting semi-automatic weapons into fully automatic weapons. [redacted] obtained these plans from a west coast gun house.

Concerning [redacted] Investigator, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Unit, United States Treasury Department, advised on December 16, 1965, that approximately two weeks ago his office received information from Service Sales, Inc., Post Office Box 889, Seattle, Washington, to the effect that one [redacted] Cleveland, Ohio, was sent plans on how to convert an M-1 carbine and other semi-automatic weapons into fully automatic weapons.

[redacted] advised that he went to the residence of [redacted] approximately one month ago (exact date not recalled), and he determined that [redacted]. He stated that he learned from [redacted] that he was also known as [redacted] that he had received the above described plans from Service Sales, Inc. [redacted] indicated that he had been thinking of collecting rifles and had sent for information on conversion kits out of curiosity. [redacted] indicated that he had never used the plans. He also indicated that he has given up the idea of collecting rifles and has no further interest in any kind of weapons. He voluntarily gave the above plans to [redacted]. He indicated to [redacted] that the only equipment in his possession is a .38 caliber revolver which he keeps in his house for self protection. [redacted] indicated that he is employed by [redacted]

On July 30, 1965, two cars left Barnesville, Georgia, containing seven men. All of the men carried sidearms. [redacted] stated they would not take their sawed-off shotguns, but would send for them if they were needed.

[redacted] July 30, 1965)

On July 17, 1965, at the rally of the NKKKK held at Rockmart, Georgia, [redacted] stated he has been checking on the houses where civil rights workers are staying at Fort Valley, Georgia. He said he is going to tell the Sheriff of Peach County, Georgia, in which Fort Valley is located, where the civil rights workers are staying, and if the Sheriff does not do something about moving them out of Peach County, he [redacted] will do so.

[redacted] July 27, 1965)

On August 21, 1965, the NKKKK held a rally near Thomaston, Georgia. Very few people attended, and it rained hard during the rally.

[redacted] September 20, 1965)

On August 28, 1965, [redacted] met at [redacted] at Barnesville, Georgia, and then went to Pine Mountain, Georgia, to set up a public speaking and cross burning. This was set up on [redacted] on the property of [redacted]. The public speaking began at about 8:00 p.m. on August 28, 1965, and approximately 125 persons were present. Approximately six of those wore robes [redacted] from Atlanta and JAMES R. VENABLE attended. [redacted] acted as master of ceremonies and gave a talk and invited people to join the NKKKK. [redacted] also sang several songs. [redacted] made a talk concerning the Bible to show that the Bible advocates the separation of the races.

A leaflet dated August 10, 1965, from JAMES R. VENABLE, Imperial Wizard, NKKKK, Tucker, Georgia, states the NKKKK will hold a public speaking and cross burning near Atlanta, Georgia, at Stone Mountain, Georgia, on September 4, 1965. All Klanspeople and families, and patriotic white people were invited in the leaflet to attend the rally, and members of Klan organizations were invited to wear their robes. The leaflet stated that September 4, 1965, would celebrate the Fiftiety Anniversary of the rebuilding of the Klan on Stone Mountain.

[redacted] August 19, 1965)

A National Klan Day Rally was held on September 4, 1965, in the cow pasture owned by JAMES R. VENABLE, Imperial Wizard of the NKKKK at Stone Mountain, Georgia. The rally began about 7:45 p.m. JAMES R. VENABLE was the moderator and spoke only briefly to introduce the speakers. [redacted]

[redacted] of Buchanan, Georgia, was one of the speakers. There were two other speakers, one from Ohio, and another from Florida, whose identities are not known. [redacted]

[redacted] of O'Gorman, Georgia, spoke briefly and said "Us would rather fight than mix." [redacted]

Following that speech, [redacted] of Biloxi, Mississippi, made a short speech in which he criticized the Negroes, Catholics, and Jews. There were an estimated 3500 people at the rally including about 100 who wore robes. There were approximately 600 cars in the parking lot.

People started leaving the rally shortly after it started, but by 11:30 p.m. there were still about 200 people present.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date 9-16-651

[redacted] Buchanan, Georgia, furnished the following voluntary information:

During the Summer of 1965 he and JAMES R. VENABLE, Imperial Wizard of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, had been working together in the State of Ohio to organize Klan groups. He stated they have not been working to organize the same Klan organization and stated that he, [redacted] has started a Klan organization known as Knights of the Ku Klux Klan. This organization is ruled by a 16-member Imperial Kloncillium.

This Imperial Kloncillium has appointed him as the [redacted] of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan. While VENABLE is the Imperial Wizard and only national officer of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, he is a member also of the Imperial Kloncillium of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

The National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan and the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan are two separate and distinct organizations and membership in one organization does not involve membership in the other.

[redacted] advised that Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, of which he is [redacted], uses the four Klan degrees as copywritten by [redacted] and this organization is intended only as a fraternal organization.

b7C

[redacted] advised that he and VENABLE have recently had a disagreement and they are not presently working together in the formation of Klan organizations. [redacted] has become disenchanted with VENABLE because VENABLE has accepted into his membership persons of unsavory character and potentially dangerous people who can do nothing but cause embarrassment to any organization to which they belong.

[redacted] source advised on October 12, 1956, that [redacted] organized a new Klan group in Atlanta, Georgia, in 1953. This organization received a corporate charter in Georgia in October, 1955, under the name U. S. Klans. The same source, and [redacted] source, advised in May, 1960, that U. S. Klans has no direct affiliation with any previous Klan group, but utilizes, with only minor changes, the Klan Kloran or ritual written in about 1915 by WILLIAM JOSEPH SIMMONS for use by the Old Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (1915-1944).

These sources advised that the U. S. Klans has as its principal aims and objectives the promotion of Americanism, white supremacy and segregation of the races. On numerous occasions, EDWARDS announced that these objectives would be obtained by legal means, and without violence.

b7C
b7D

[redacted] source and [redacted] source advised in February, 1961, that at that time a split occurred in U. S. Klans, which resulted in a great majority of the officers and members pulling out and forming a new Klan group.

[redacted] source advised in October, 1963, that U. S. Klans had suffered another split and that most of the members had pulled out and formed a new Klan group.

[redacted] source advised in August, 1964, that U. S. Klans is now a very small organization, [redacted] and maintaining a headquarters at 112½ West Harvard Avenue, College Park, Georgia.

In June, 1965, the Sheriff of Clayton County, Georgia, advised that [redacted] was then confined in a hospital for alcoholics and while in jail prior to such commitment, [redacted] told the sheriff that U. S. Klans has gone out of existence.

Also in June, 1965, the Chief of Police of Clayton County, Jonesboro, Georgia, advised he was told by [redacted] [redacted] that U. S. Klans is out of existence.

[redacted] source advised in June, 1965, that a former member of U. S. Klans said the organization is dead. [redacted] source referred to above advised in August, 1965, that U. S. Klans is now out of existence.

ASSOCIATION OF SOUTH CAROLINA KLANS KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN (ASCK)

A source advised on September 24, 1956, that the Association of South Carolina Klans (ASCK) was organized in the Fall of 1955 and is patterned after the Association of Carolina Klans (ACK). This source said ASCK is a new organization and not a rebirth of ACK, although all high-ranking officials of ASCK had been members of ACK. The source stated announced purposes of this organization are to promote white supremacy and combat integration of the races; however, the use of violence is disavowed.

[redacted] source advised on September 2, 1950, that ACK was composed of groups formerly members of the Association of Georgia Klans (AGK) and although ACK severed all connections with AGK on November 14, 1949, the ideals, purposes and policies of the two organizations remained identical. ACK became defunct after conviction and imprisonment of its highest official and other members in 1952.

[redacted] source advised on April 16, 1962, that ASCK continues to operate for the purpose of promoting white supremacy and combating integration by peaceful means by public speaking and propaganda.

[redacted] source said that ASCK, using the name Majority Citizens League of South Carolina, published a monthly newspaper, "Southland Standard," from August through December, 1961, and dropped it due to lack of financial support.

AGK has been designated by the Attorney General pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

UNITED FLORIDA KU KLUX KLAN
(UFKKK)

A source advised on August 20, 1955, that a new organization known as the Florida Ku Klux Klan (FKKK) had been formed at Macclenny, Florida, on August 14, 1955, by former members of the Association of Florida Ku Klux Klan (AFKKK).

The objectives of this group, according to a second source are to oppose integration in the schools and to fight communism.

Regarding AFKKK, [redacted] source advised that a former official of the Association of Georgia Klans (AGK) formed an organization on July 7, 1953, known as AFKKK. The "Morning Tribune," Tampa, Florida, newspaper, in its August 11, 1955, issue revealed AFKKK disbanded on that date.

[redacted] source advised on October 25, 1956, that AFKKK operated under the same principles and by-laws as the AGK. The AGK has been designated by the Attorney General pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

b7D

[redacted] source advised on February 17, 1958, that the FKKK is operating and maintaining the same objectives as set forth above.

[redacted] source advised on June 28, 1961, that at a meeting held in Orlando, Florida, on June 25, 1961, the FKKK and the United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., in Florida, consolidated and the new organization is known as the UFKKK.

On May 17, 1962, the sixth source advised that the UFKKK is still in existence in Florida and maintains the same objectives set forth below.

ASSOCIATION OF GEORGIA KLANS (AGK)
KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN

A source advised on January 11, 1961, that the AGK was [redacted] in the spring of 1960, with mailing address of Post Office Box 41, Bloomingdale, Georgia. This source stated that AGK is a new organization and is not affiliated in any way with the old Association of Georgia Klans. It is patterned after the U. S. Klans, has the same general ritual and has the same titles for its Klavern officers. Most officers and members are former members of the U. S. Klans. The announced purposes of this organization are to promote white supremacy and to fight integration and Communism by peaceful means, and it is opposed to any type of violence. This source said AGK is affiliated with the National Ku Klux Klan.

IMPROVED ORDER OF THE U. S. KLANS, KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN, INC. (IMPROVED ORDER OF THE U. S. KLANS)

Improved Order of the U. S. Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., was chartered in DeKalb County, Georgia, on November 7, 1963, as a "patriotic, secret, social, and benevolent order." A source advised on October 28, 1963, that the organization was formed as a result of a split in the U. S. Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc. The source reported that the new organization is [redacted]

[redacted] who was formerly [redacted]

[redacted] of the U. S. Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc. The same source advised in May and July, 1965, that the Improved Order of the U. S. Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., has only two units, both of which are located in Alabama.

VIGILANTES
LAMAR COUNTY, GEORGIA

A source advised on July 28, 1964, a hate type organization had been formed in Lamar County, Georgia, known as the Vigilantes. Source advised the Vigilantes' leadership was composed of former Klansmen, some of whom had been arrested in Griffin, Georgia, on April 25, 1964, in possession of numerous firearms.

On April 25, 1964, five men subsequently identified as members of the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, burned a cross in downtown Griffin, Georgia, and while the cross was being set up, weapons were pointed at persons standing on the street. These persons were arrested by the Griffin, Georgia Police Department.

Source advised the Vigilantes advocate the use of violence and are opposed to integration in any form. Source advises the leaders of the Vigilantes instruct members to purchase weapons and ammunition.

On September 3, 1964, source advised the Vigilantes, after substantial decrease in membership, advocated the approach that the Bible upholds their views on segregation. Source advised members meet in a church owned by the family of four of the members.

DETAILS:

A characterization of National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc. (NKKKK) and National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of Ohio, Inc. is contained in the appendix of this report.

I. ORGANIZATION STRUCTURE

A. Charter Information

On October 8, 1964 [redacted]
 Secretary of State's Office, Columbus, Ohio, advised public records from this office indicate a charter was granted the NKKKK of Ohio on October 5, 1964, by the State of Ohio.

The incorporation papers were signed by [redacted]
Columbus, Ohio. [redacted]
Grove City, Ohio, [redacted] Grove City,
Ohio, [redacted]

On October 23, 1964, [redacted] Corporation
Council, State House, Secretary of State's Office, State of Ohio, advised that the NKKKK of Ohio, Inc. charter granted October 5, 1964, was revoked October 22, 1964.

On December 14, 1965, [redacted] advised as follows:

Since the date of charter revocation by the State of Ohio, one [redacted] Oregonia, Ohio, (Warren County) has established himself as [redacted] of the Klan in Ohio. [redacted] has been responsible for organizing several Klan rallies in Ohio during 1965 and claims affiliation with JAMES R. VENABLE, Imperial Wizard, NKKKK, Tucker, Georgia.

[redacted] of Columbus, Ohio, after proclaiming himself [redacted] of NKKKK during October, 1964, has cancelled his allegiance from this Klan to the United Klans of America (UKA). [redacted] made this switch during August, 1965.
[redacted] has followed with similar action, also aligning himself with UKA. [redacted] within the past sixty days has ceased to participate in any Klan activity, and is believed to have resigned his membership from NKKKK.

[redacted] added that friction developed between [redacted]
[redacted] and JAMES VENABLE as a result of VENABLE's participation in the Klan rally held on [redacted] farm at Oregonia, Ohio, during Memorial Day weekend of 1965. [redacted] then broke away from NKKKK and aligned himself with UKA.

A characterization of UKA is contained in the appendix of this report.

B. Headquarters and Klaverns

[redacted] has repeatedly advised on numerous occasions that the NKKKK has no Ohio headquarters or Klaverns in operation.
[redacted] Oregonia, Ohio, has held several small attended closed meetings at his farm in Oregonia, Ohio. These meetings were usually decided independently by [redacted] and were held mainly

b2

CI 157-245

for personal financial gain of SCOTT.

C. General Activities

On June 1, 1965 [redacted] advised as follows:

A Klan rally affiliated with NKKKK was held on the farm owned by [redacted] Oregonia, Ohio, during Memorial Day weekend, 1965. JAMES R. VENABLE, Imperial Wizard, made two speeches during the rally attacking Communism in Government, Negroes, Jews, and President JOHNSON's governmental policy regarding civil and voting rights of Negroes. Approximately one hundred individuals filled out applications to join this Klan, and a lot of money was collected as initiation dues from individuals filling out Klan applications.

On June 28, 1965, [redacted] furnished the following information:

A secret Klan initiation ceremony took place on the farm owned by [redacted] at Oregonia, Ohio, June 27, 1965. Approximately seventy-five to one hundred individuals were probably inducted into the Klan this date. The induction rights were secret, being closed to the public and all news media. JAMES R. VENABLE, Imperial Wizard, and [redacted] presided over the ceremony.

On September 23, 1965, [redacted] advised as follows:

A Klan rally under sponsorship of NKKKK was held September 18, 1965, on the property owned by [redacted] at Lodi, Ohio. On September 19, 1965, at this same site, initiation ceremonies were held, and approximately fifty individuals were initiated into this Klan organization. Most of the individuals initiated were from the Lodi, Ohio, and surrounding area.

On November 6 and 9, 1965, [redacted] advised as follows:

The Klan rally, which was scheduled to be held near Dillsboro, Indiana, on November 6, 1965, did not take place as Dearborn County, Indiana, officials served a court order to JAMES R. VENABLE, which prohibited a gathering under an Indiana anti-hate law. As a result of this action, Klan officials who gathered to conduct this rally, which included [redacted] decided to transfer the rally site to [redacted] farm at Oregonia, Ohio.

b2
b6
b7C
b7D

CI 157-245

During the p.m. of November 6, 1965, the rally was started, and approximately one hundred individuals were in attendance. Those present consisted of members of the news media, interested onlookers, and Klansmen. JAMES R. VENABLE made a short speech during the rally, expounding the Klan policy line, and was accompanied by [redacted] described as an old friend of VENABLE'S. A cross was burned on the rally site; no violence took place.

On December 13, 1965, [redacted] advised as follows:

After officials of the Eagles Lodge in Newport, Kentucky, refused to allow a scheduled Klan meeting to be held at the Eagles Lodge on December 12, 1965, it was decided to transfer the meeting site to [redacted] farm at Oregonia, Ohio. The meeting took place on [redacted] farm; however, neither JAMES R. VENABLE or [redacted] made an appearance as was originally scheduled. This caused extreme disappointment to [redacted]. Approximately seventy-five persons were present, and the possibility exists that a very small number of those present were initiated into the Klan.

The purpose of the meeting was to explain that the UKA was attempting "to raid and steal" members from NKKKK for UKA. A Grand Dragon was supposed to be appointed for the State of Ohio; however, this appointment was not made.

On December 14, 1965, [redacted] advised as follows:

During the above meeting at [redacted] farm on December 12, 1965, [redacted] told everyone present that there were no additional plans for Klan meetings or rallies until after January 1, 1966, especially in view of the Klan hearings scheduled in Washington, D.C. during January, 1966. Also JAMES R. VENABLE and [redacted] never made an appearance at the above meeting because they were in the Cleveland - Akron, Ohio, area on December 11 or 12, 1965, or both dates, on some type of Klan business.

D. Miscellaneous Information

The following investigation was conducted at Columbus, Ohio, on October 25, 1965, by SA [redacted]

[redacted] Ohio State Department, Corporation's Office, advised there is currently no

(1) The location of State Headquarters and the names and titles of State Officials, if any.

(2) The number of Klaverns and the membership figures for the area covered by the reporting office. (The names, location and identities of officials of Klaverns need not be set forth in the insert unless a compelling reason exists.)

(3) A summary of Klavern and State organizations, finances, publications, and propaganda. Information concerning public rallies should be limited to those of the State or National organization; however, the total number of rallies should be set forth.

In connection with the above, it is noted the NKKKK was organized primarily for the purpose of uniting various other small Klan organizations. Therefore, in most instances, the NKKKK does not organize units of NKKKK under that organization but its activities are carried on to some extent through other Klan organizations. However, in those instances where a Klan organization, such as the United Florida Ku Klux Klan, is considered a member organization, it is felt the information pertaining to such organizations should be concerned primarily with the above activities pertaining to that organization, and the above requested background pertaining to such member Klan organizations should be furnished for inclusion in Atlanta's NKKKK annual report.

It is requested the inserts be submitted to Atlanta by February 1, 1966.

On December 18, 1965, a confidential informant advised that Western Electric Company was having a Christmas party at the Convention Hall, Shreveport, Louisiana, at night and klansmen led by [redacted] planned some harassment because Negro and White employees of the Company would be there.

This information was furnished to [redacted]
[redacted] of Public Safety, Shreveport, Louisiana on December 18, 1965.

On December 20, 1965, Harvey Teasley, Chief of Police, advised that officers observed [redacted] and four or five other men who were observing the area in the vicinity of the Convention Hall. This was between 8 and 9 p.m. on December 18, 1965. Officers approached [redacted] and inquired as to his intent, and he said he had pulled his men off and they did not plan anything but were there to catch a stool pigeon. To this, the police replied that they patrolled and policed all such parties and especially those at the Convention Hall, which hall is owned by the City. No further action was taken by the police other than to order [redacted] out of the area.

Re Atlanta airtel to the Bureau, 12/27/65, requesting that inserts concerning member organizations such as the United Florida Ku Klux Klan (UFKKK), be furnished for inclusion in Atlanta's annual report on the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., (NKKKK).

In connection with the above, it is noted that the UFKKK is the only klan organization in the Jacksonville
Division associated with the NKKKK.

The UFKKK, while associated with the NKKKK is an independent klan organization and the Bureau has instructed that a separate annual report concerning the activities of the UFKKK be submitted to the Bureau.

There have been no activities of the captioned organization as such in the Jacksonville Division.

It is noted that to include an insert concerning the UFKKK in the annual report of captioned organization would be a duplication of Jacksonville's annual report on the UFKKK and apparently would serve no useful purpose.
It is therefore recommended that the Atlanta Office merely report that the UFKKK is one of the organizations associated with the NKKKK, ~~to~~ include characterization of the UFKKKK.

An insert concerning the UFKKK will not be furnished the Atlanta Division UACB.

Re Atlanta airtel 12/27/65 and Jacksonville airtel 1/4/66.

Captioned organization is a federation of separate Klan organizations. In order for the Atlanta Office to prepare the annual national summary report required by February 15, of each year it is necessary to have information relative to the separate organizations making up this federation with particular emphasis on those organizations' activities on behalf of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan. Atlanta should have available also a brief summary of the organizational structure of the separate Klan organizations.

It is believed that Atlanta's request for an insert reflecting this information is not only reasonable but necessary for Atlanta to fulfill its obligation and, accordingly, the Jacksonville Office is instructed to prepare the insert as requested.

Re: NATIONAL KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN, INC.
RACIAL MATTERS (KLAN)

On January 7, 1966, Mr. Sam Yarbrough, Chief of Police, Pulaski, Tennessee, advised that three white males appeared at the Pulaski Police Department on December 24, 1965, and made inquiry in relation to where the Ku Klux Klan (KKK) meeting was to be held. They advised that they were from Florida. Chief Yarbrough advised that the abovementioned individuals were advised that there was no KKK meeting to be held in Pulaski, Tennessee, to his knowledge.

Chief Yarbrough stated that James R. Venable, Imperial Wizard of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc. (NKKKK), appeared in Pulaski, Tennessee, on December 24, 1965, with a white male, who claimed to be a Chaplain, and an elderly woman. Venable appeared at the "Giles Free Press," a Pulaski newspaper, and announced their presence in Pulaski. Venable advised that he did not contemplate any march or parade on the part of the NKKKK while in Pulaski. The news media asked Venable to pose in his robe which he refused to do.

Venable and his party of two remained overnight in the Windsor Village Motel, Pulaski.

Chief Yarbrough stated that there was no Klan activity in Pulaski on December 24, 1965, other than the presence of the above six individuals.

A characterization of the NKKKK is set forth in the Appendix attached hereto.

A Confidential Source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, on January 10, 1966, informed that Klavern #6 (Cleveland, Ohio area), of the NKKKK held a regular meeting on January 9, 1966, at Cleveland, Ohio.

During the course of this meeting source stated that he overheard [redacted] f Klavern #6, advise another Klansman that the Klan plans a march on Washington, D.C., on Memorial Day, May 30, 1966. [redacted] related that the purpose of the march is to stop integration and force the repeal of all Civil Rights Laws. [redacted] remarked, "If this march is not successful the Klan intends to revolt against the government and start another Civil War".

In regard to the above, [redacted] advised that the Klan March on Washington is being organized on a national scale and that he received his information from "National Headquarters in Georgia."

This source also advised that during the course of the meeting a general discussion took place concerning security within the Klan. During this phase [redacted] a member of Klavern #6, suggested the formation of a "Black Squad" which would be the Klan's "enforcers" who would be authorized to beat or kill any informers. [redacted] stated that in addition to handling security within the Klan the "Black Squad" would be used to beat or kill "niggers" at their Civil Rights meetings. [redacted] stated that all that was needed was to let them congregate and then slip a bomb into their meeting room to blow up 50 or 100 "niggers". He added that he felt that maybe the rest of the "niggers" would get the idea that the Klan means business.

III. ACTIVITIES OF KLAVERNS

A. Meetings

Chief of Police CHARLES P. SPERBER, Police Department, Strongsville, Ohio, advised on October 18, 1965, that the NKKKK held a meeting on October 17, 1965, on the farm of [REDACTED] Strongsville, Ohio. Chief SPERBER stated that there were no KKK signs at the site nor were there any KKK signs pointing out the route to the farm as there had been in previous Klan rallies held in this area. He also noted that there were no hooded Klansmen present. There was a small sign observed at the entrance to the [REDACTED] farm which read [REDACTED] is here." Chief SPERBER stated that he believes this sign identified the farm for those attending. He also advised that he feels that the [REDACTED] referred to on the sign is [REDACTED] Ohio [REDACTED] for the NKKKK, from Oregonia, Ohio. Chief SPERBER stated that throughout the day he occasionally saw [REDACTED], whom he personally knows, on the [REDACTED] property.

Chief SPERBER advised that he kept the [REDACTED] farm under observation from approximately 10:00 AM, October 17, 1965, shortly after the meeting began, until 3:00 PM when the last of the participants in the meeting departed. About 100 automobiles were observed during this period traveling on [REDACTED] toward the [REDACTED] farm. Chief SPERBER stated that because of the terrain and limited manpower, he could not definitely establish if all these cars actually entered the [REDACTED] farm. He noted that at least one or two individuals, mostly men, were in each car and that a possible total of 150 cars could have entered the [REDACTED] farm, including those he initially observed in the cow pasture numbering approximately 50. Chief SPERBER specifically pointed out that he was unable to cover the parking area due to the terrain and the heavy brush that hid the parking area from his view.

b7C

Chief SPERBER stated that members of his department were able to observe a barn on the [REDACTED] property where it was apparent that the action was taking place. He stated that usually one or two individuals would gather at the barn entrance and when a small group had formed they would be admitted to the barn together. These same individuals would then depart in about one hour. As these individuals would gather at the barn entrance, it appeared that they [REDACTED] were being checked out by one or two men and at times [REDACTED]

CV 100-10261

[redacted] was observed talking to these men. According to Chief SPERBER, the meeting was orderly and no incidents occurred.

[redacted] Strongsville, Ohio, advised on October 19, 1965, that on October 17, 1965, [redacted] noticed an unusually large number of automobiles enter the [redacted] farm. [redacted] stated that [redacted] observed an American and Confederate flag flying in the field near the [redacted] barn. [redacted] advised that during the day [redacted] estimated that "at least 100 cars" entered and left the [redacted] property.

[redacted] Strongsville, Ohio, advised on October 19, 1965, that [redacted] advised that [redacted] was aware of the Klan affair which took place on the [redacted] farm on October 17, 1965. [redacted] noted that [redacted]

b7c

[redacted] stated that on October 17, 1965, at approximately 10:00 AM cars began to arrive at the [redacted] farm. The cars were checked at the entrance and then parked in a cow pasture and the occupants would then walk to the barn. At the front of the barn these men would again be checked and when a small group had assembled they would all be admitted to the barn. As soon as these men entered the barn [redacted] as though some sort of ceremony was taking place. [redacted]

[redacted] estimated that "there must have been 200 men there during the day." [redacted]

CV 100-10261

[redacted] advised on October 19, 1965, that he learned that the NKKKK held a meeting on October 17, 1965, at the [redacted] farm, Strongsville, Ohio. Source advised that this was a secret initiation of new members into the NKKKK.

[redacted] advised that the NKKKK held their last initiation on September 9, 1965, near Lodi, Ohio, but that there were many individuals who indicated that they would be unable to attend this initiation and consequently were initiated on October 17, 1965.

[redacted] advised on October 21, 1965, that the NKKKK affair held at Strongsville, Ohio, on October 17, 1965, was an initiation of new members into the organization. Those initiated on October 17, 1965, had been unable to attend the prior initiation held in September, 1965, near Lodi, Ohio. This source advised that all arrangements for the affair were personally handled by [redacted]. He pointed out that no persons other than [redacted] personal entourage from Southern Ohio, those individuals to be initiated, and a select group from the Strongsville area, who were friends of [redacted] were cognizant of the affair.

[redacted] advised on November 30, 1965, that on November 18, 1965, a closed NKKKK meeting was held at David Hall, 4105 Clark Avenue, Cleveland, Ohio. This meeting was organized by [redacted] the Ohio Klan [redacted] from Oregonia, Ohio. There were 53 persons in attendance and 25 individuals were initiated into the Klan during the meeting. According to the source, the real purpose of the meeting was to establish a Klavern in Cleveland, Ohio. The source stated that even though it is believed that the Klavern is now established, a headquarters location has not been set up. A President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer were elected to operate the Klan during the meeting. There were no national Klan figures present during the meeting.

[redacted] advised on November 30, 1965, that at the meeting of Cleveland Klavern #6 NKKKK held on November 28, [redacted] 1965. at David Hall.

[redacted] and [redacted].

[redacted] Bureau of Special Investigation, Cleveland Police Department, advised on November 29, 1965, that he had learned that the NKKKK held a meeting on November 28, 1965, at David Hall. There were approximately 50 people in attendance and approximately 22 people took the Klan oath and were initiated into the Klan.

[redacted] advised on December 13, 1965, that a meeting of Klavern #6 NKKKK was held at David Hall on December 11, 1965. According to the source, approximately 20 people were present. [redacted] was identified as the [redacted]

[redacted] It was announced at the meeting that a bank account for Klavern #6 under the name "Educational Sportsmen's Fund" was opened at the Cleveland Trust Bank. Annual dues for Klansmen were announced to be $15, of which $6.50 is kept for local Klaverns and the balance sent to Georgia. A discussion regarding possible informers in the Klan was held.

b2
b6
b7C
b7D

[redacted] advised on January 10, 1966, that on January 9, 1966, a meeting of Klavern #6 NKKKK was held at Bohemian National Hall. Cleveland. Ohio. In the course of this meeting, [redacted] of Klavern #6, stated that the Klan planned a march on Washington, D. C., on Memorial Day, 1966. The purpose of this march, according to [redacted] would be to stop integration and force the repeal of the civil rights laws. [redacted] remarked, "If this march is not successful, the Klan intends to revolt against the government and start another Civil War."

[redacted] stated that he received his information concerning this march from "national headquarters in Georgia."

The removal of [redacted] was also discussed by the members. The reasons for his removal are his advanced age and his tendency to live in the past.

Women and men Klan members went to the basement of the building where they viewed a movie which purportedly concerned the distribution of food baskets to the needy on Christmas Eve, 1965. After the movie, the women departed and the men returned to the meeting.

The next Klan meeting was discussed and it was stressed that it would be an important one. [redacted] [redacted] are to attend and a new Exalted Cyclops will be named. The meeting is scheduled for January 23, 1966, but the location was not announced.

[redacted] The need for more stringent security was discussed. [redacted] a member of Klavern #6, suggested that a "Black Squad" be formed which would be the Klan "enforcers." This squad would be authorized to beat or kill informers. [redacted] also stated that this squad would be used to kill "niggers" at their meetings. [redacted] stated that all that would be necessary would be to let them congregate, then slip a bomb into their meeting room and blow up 50 or 100 "niggers." He stated that perhaps then the rest of the "niggers" would get the idea that the Klan means business. [redacted] also indicated that he can supply all Klansmen with firearms and teach them how to use them.

b6
b7C
b7D

[redacted] advised on January 10, 1966, that on January 9, 1966, the women's section of Klavern #6 NKKKK held a meeting at Bohemian Hall. In attendance were nine women and three men. The meeting was an informal one and no date was set for a future meeting. It was decided that future women's meetings would be held at the home of one of the members.

[redacted] advised on January 10, 1966, that on January 9, 1966, a meeting of Klavern #6 NKKKK was held at Bohemian Hall. At this meeting he advised that a discussion concerning a firearms range was held and it was indicated that Klansmen would be instructed in the use of firearms. The source also noted that a change in the front name of Klavern #6 from "Educational Sportsmen's Fund" to

"Cleveland Rod and Gun Club" would be effected. There was no final decision on a new name.

B. Finances

[redacted] advised on January 10, 1966, that as of this date Klavern #6 has a bank balance in its account at the Cleveland Trust Company of $105.95. This bank account is under the name "Educational Sportsmen's Fund."

C. Publications and Propaganda

[redacted] advised on January 14, 1966, that Klavern #6 as of this date has published no literature of its own.

D. Miscellaneous

1. Possible Change in NKKKK Leaders

[redacted] advised on November 4, 1965, that he recently learned that [redacted] has lost favor with national Klan officials and that [redacted] a Cleveland man, would be running the Klan in this area. He also heard that "Mr. Klan" would be the Klan organization in this area.

[redacted] advised on December 27, 1965, that he recently heard that there is a possibility of a merger of the UKA and the NKKKK. This source also advised that [redacted] of Cleveland is under consideration by NKKKK officials for appointment as [redacted] of Ohio.

Character: RACIAL MATTERS (KLAN)

Synopsis: National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc. (NKKKK) held rally near Covington, Kentucky, September 25 - 26, 1965. A news report stated this was the first Klan rally in that area in 30 years. Estimated peak attendance at the rally was 400, many of whom were drawn to the scene by the appearance of fire trucks called to put out an unauthorized bonfire. The local police made two arrests based on warrants taken by a news photographer that the two individuals had assaulted him. On 12/5/65, the NKKKK held a closed meeting at Newport, Kentucky. An estimated 22 to 24 individuals joined during the meeting. The individuals were from Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky. Both the 9/25 - 26/65 and 12/5/65 affairs reportedly were organized by individuals from Ohio, and there is no evidence that any Kentucky Klavern of the organization exists at this time. An informant has identified 12 persons from Covington and vicinity as having recently joined the NKKKK.

DETAILS:

Information concerning the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (NKKKK) is set forth in the appendix to this report.

ORGANIZATIONAL STRUCTURE

On September 29, 1965, [redacted] Kentucky State Police, Frankfort, Kentucky, advised that two members of the Kentucky State Police attended in an undercover capacity a rally of the NKKKK held near Covington, Kentucky, on September 25 - 26, 1965. During the attendance they obtained an application for membership in the organization which reflects the national headquarters to be Post Office Box 107, Tucker, Georgia. To date no information has been received indicating a Kentucky chapter or Klavern of the NKKKK has been formed.

GENERAL ACTIVITIES

MEMORANDUM OF INFORMATION

An article in the September 24, 1965, issue of the Cincinnati Inquirer, a daily Cincinnati, Ohio, newspaper, reported that PARKIE SCOTT of Oregonia, Ohio, identified in the article as a Klan Kleagle of the NKKKK, had announced the organization would hold a public recruiting rally in an old ball field one mile south of Covington, Kentucky, on September 25- 26, 1965. It was further reported in the article that the rally would be the first Klan rally in Northern Kentucky in 30 years.

On September 29, 1965, [redacted] Kentucky State Police, Frankfort, Kentucky, advised that two detectives of the Kentucky State Police had attended the above rally in an undercover capacity, and the report they submitted concerning the rally included the following:

All arrangements for the rally were made by people from Ohio, and the rally seemed to be mostly for the benefit of those people. The purpose of the rally was a recruitment drive, and an estimated 15 to 20 people filled out application blanks and paid their initiation fees during the rally. Throughout the day of September 25, 1965, a record player kept repeating three songs; namely, "Dixie," "Cumberland Gap" and an anti-Negro song "We're Gonna Kill Them Rotten Mothers."

There was no schedule for speeches, and the leaders of the rally waited until about 7:00 PM, September 25, 1965, when a sufficient crowd had been gathered to start the speaking. The speakers included [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] (phonetic) of Atlanta, Georgia, a man of about 65 years of age, who in his remarks attacked Negroes, Jews and Catholics. Another speaker, (First Name Unknown)

[REDACTED] who said he was from Dayton, Ohio, but born in Knott County, Kentucky, in his remarks attacked the press. A third speaker, a Miss FOSTER (phonetic), who said she is 57 years of age and from Atlanta, Georgia, in her remarks generally followed the same lines as the speakers [REDACTED]

B. APPROX. 170S

During the time [REDACTED] was speaking several fire trucks from the nearby Southern Hills Volunteer Fire Department began passing back and forth on the highway nearby with their sirens and bells going full blast resulting in the audience being unable to hear [REDACTED]. This continued for a few minutes, and the fire trucks left. After about five minutes the fire trucks returned and proceeded to attempt to extinguish a bonfire of tires burning at the rally. The fire chief said that the fire department had received a complaint that the bonfire had been built without a permit, but the crowd felt that the fire department had come to harass the people at the rally. Prior to the fire truck incident, an estimated 200 people were at the rally, but the noise of the fire truck sirens caused additional persons to come to the scene until about an estimated 400 people were present.

An agreement was reached between the Chief of the Kenton County, Kentucky Patrol and the leaders of the rally that a cross could be burned. This was ignited at about 10:00 PM, September 25, 1965. At this time [REDACTED] a photographer and newsman from Cincinnati, Ohio, tried to get through the crowd to take some pictures, and he was struck several times by two Klan guards.

LS 157-224

On September 26, 1965, the two individuals were arrested by the local police on warrants which were taken out by [redacted]

The Kentucky State Police Detectives attending the rally were of the opinion that it would have passed relatively unpublished and unsuccessful if the fire trucks had not been dispatched to the scene.

On December 7, 1965, [redacted] advised that he had attended a closed meeting of the NKKKK on December 5, 1965, at the Eagles Lodge Building, 8th and York Streets, Newport, Kentucky. The meeting had been scheduled to start at 2:00 PM but was held up for an hour or so awaiting the arrival of [redacted]. The source stated that 22 to 24 people were initiated into the NKKKK during this meeting, being people from Dayton, Ohio; Indianapolis, Indiana; Cincinnati, Ohio, and from unknown cities in Kentucky.

b6
b7C
b7D

An article in the December 10, 1965, issue of the Cincinnati Inquirer reported that PARKIE SCOTT had announced there would be a closed meeting of the NKKKK at the Eagles Lodge in Newport, Kentucky, on December 12, 1965. However, according to the article, officials of the lodge had said that the Klan would not be permitted to meet in the lodge, and that the reservation for the meeting had been obtained through misrepresentation.

An article in the December 13, 1965, issue of the Cincinnati Inquirer reported that the planned meeting of the Klan at the Eagles Lodge on December 12, 1965, was not held.

On August 25, 1965, [redacted] furnished information identifying 7 individuals from Northern Kentucky area in the vicinity of Cincinnati, Ohio, and one person from Cynthiana, Kentucky, as having recently joined the NKKKK.

On August 27, 1965, [redacted] furnished information identifying nine individuals from the Northern Kentucky area near Cincinnati, Ohio, as having been initiated into the NKKKK at a ceremony held August 16, 1965, near Oregonia, Ohio. Four of the persons identified by [redacted] were identical with four persons identified by [redacted] on August 25, 1965.

LS 157-224

On January 5, 1966, [redacted] furnished information identifying eleven individuals from the Northern Kentucky area in the vicinity of Cincinnati, Ohio, and one person from Cynthiana, Kentucky, as being members of the NKKKK. All of the individuals identified by this source had previously been identified by either [redacted] on August 25, 1965, or [redacted] on August 27, 1965.

NOTE: Cleveland advised that an informant had learned that the Klan in Ohio was attempting to raise approximately $3200 to pay trial costs resulting from an attempted Klan rally at Dixieboro, Indiana, late in 1965. It is to be noted that information was previously received that this rally was attempted and that local authorities would not permit the rally and arrested two klansmen. This previous information has been disseminated and the current information is of intelligence value and should also be disseminated.

RACIAL MATTERS - KLAN

[redacted] (Probationary), who has furnished reliable information in the past, on 1/24/66, informed that at a meeting of NKKKK Kuyahoga County Klavern #6 held 1/23/66, at Cleveland, NKKKK [redacted] for Ohio [redacted] spoke of the necessity of all Klansmen in the State of Ohio to pledge money to help pay the legal costs of the trials resulting from the cancellation and subsequent arrest of Klansmen at the NKKKK Rally which was scheduled at Dillsboro, Indiana, late 1965. He stated costs to carry the case through the State Supreme Court would be about $3,200.00 and that he started the ball rolling by contributing $1,200.00 of his own money, while JAMES R. VENABEL, Imperial Wizard of the NKKKK, wired $200.00 of his money to help in the fight.

[redacted] also mentioned the necessity of obeying the Local Exalted Cyclops without question as the Exalted Cyclops received his orders from him, [redacted] and he in turn receives his orders from JAMES R. VENABEL, in Georgia.

The above is being furnished for the information of the Bureau and offices concerned.
